

KIRKMAN CEMETERY

Transcribed by Cody Blue Miller, March 2003

Kirkman and Sweat Cemetery are very close together. Kirkman is also called the Simpson Cemetery and the Wolfe Cemetery. They are off the road about ½ mile and probably hard to find. From the map it is sorta south of the Ervin Hester Road and sorta east of the Sulphur Springs Road. Take Hwy 64 West from Selmer 3-4 miles, turn left on Sulphur Spring's Road about 2 miles, just past where the Ervin Hester Road intersects. Kirkman Cemetery is a short distance south of the Sweat Cemetery, atop a hill and the woods just east of Sulphur Springs's Rd. Albert Wolfe told me his family cleaned this cemetery in 2001. Albert said Clark Simpson and his children are buried here. Jim and Dora Graham Simpson. Harold Cox documented this cemetery and shows 11 graves. Unmarked according to Cox are: Charles Monroe Wolfe Mar 23, 1826-June 16, 1891 and his wife, Savory Julian Wolfe, Sept 15, 1831-Dec 4, ca 1874; John H Wolfe 1860-1890, son of Richard and Mary Eliza Wolfe. Five unmarked graves in a row beside John. There are several graves marked only with sandrocks and many graves with no markings at all. Cody Blue Miller also states the following with no birth or death dates: Baby Autrey, William Refus Kirkman, George Powell, Rachel Powell, Clark Simpson, Jake Wolfe, Doris G Simpson, James A Simpson; Zach Powell who died 1930, Mary Richard 1845-1890, Rebecca Schults 1797-1908, Irvin Wolfe 1857 - 1860. From Cemeteries of McNairy County by Nancy Wardlow Kennedy.
